This unique property is located in a peaceful and remote area of São Marcos da Serra, surrounded by unspoiled nature. The land covers 6.8 hectares and offers beautiful views of the hills and abundant wildlife, providing a unique and calm environment.

The property includes three registered houses, each requiring renovation:
- A 280m² house, the most intact, ready for restoration.
- A ruin of 320m², offering potential for rebuilding.
- A small 78m² clay and stone house, full of character and ready for renovation.

There are also two gardens with fruit trees and an idyllic pond, perfect for enjoying the peaceful surroundings. The land is mostly covered with trees, such as pines, cork oaks, and others, creating a quiet and private atmosphere, without direct neighbors.
This property is perfect for those seeking a self-sufficient lifestyle in the heart of nature. It is ideal for individualists and nature lovers looking to build a simple, independent home. While there is no electricity connection, an autonomous solution such as photovoltaic panels would be ideal.
